

Onslow County election polling places

In order to vote, a person needs to have registered with their local Board of Elections office or at the one-stop voting places. Once registered, a voter is sent a registration card through the mail. The card will have the voter's precinct and the correct polling place. The table below has the list of current places to vote for the upcoming election on May 6. Four precincts have new locations this year.

C = U.S. Congressional district S = N.C. Senate district H = N.C. House of Representatives district
