

31st Annual Destin Seafood Festival entertainment schedule:

Friday

4 p.m. - Gates open / Destin Cheerleading Exhibition

4:30 p.m. - Opening ceremony - Miss Destin / Mayor Barker

4:45 p.m. - NWF State College Soundsations Show Choir is a musical performance group much like a Vegas floor show. You will enjoy a collection of music ranging from classic rock-n-roll to contemporary pop.

6 p.m. - Black Eyed Blonde; after almost 10 years of live shows, Black Eyed Blonde has been rocking out to songs from bands, such as Red Hot Chili Peppers, Radiohead, and Earth Wind & Fire.

8 p.m. – Survivor; with 10 albums during its 32-year career, Survivor's hits include "I Can't Hold Back," "Eye Of The Tiger," and "High On You."

10 p.m. - Festival gates close

Saturday

10 a.m. - Festival gates open

2 p.m. - Chuck Lawson, tropical island music

4 p.m. - The Forrest Williams Band is known for incorporating the acoustic guitar and the harmonica, while performing a variety of music, from soul and country to rock n' roll.

6 p.m. - Ocean Street; with hits such as "Till I'm Gone," and "One Horse Town," Ocean Street has received radio success at the college radio level, and its music is licensed for use on six MTV shows.

8 p.m. - Joan Jett and the Blackhearts will headline Saturday's line up. Jett is a singer, songwriter, and guitarist with eight platinum and gold albums. She also has nine Top 40 singles, including "I Love Rock 'N' Roll," "I Hate Myself For Loving You," and "Crimson and Clover." In addition to touring, Jett hosts a weekly radio program on Sirius Satellite Radio's Faction.

10 p.m. - Festival gates close

Sunday

11 a.m. - Festival gates open

noon - The Sal Salaz Project and Stephanie Pettis RIO Band are a group of talented musicians best known for their mix of smooth jazz, pop and Latin sounds that will keep you moving.

2 p.m. - Jones and Company is known for performing a variety of genres with an eclectic collection of music, which they perform with heart and conviction.

4 p.m. - Festival ends